

OPENMINDS AT BIRNEY

MAKERS STUDIO: BOOKMAKING

In this class students will have a blast creating their own books of all different types! They will make a book of poems, a picture book, a joke book and more! Many of our books are art books, so students can use each book as a way to tell a story with words and pictures; and each class is built around a unique theme, which supports the student as a writer as well as in their larger life. For young writers, there is no better feeling than creating your own book!

This class is suitable for all ability levels.
